Monday night when the Citizenship class met, it was with the rising cheer-
2-4-6-8,

Who do we appreciate?

CAPTAIN SOMERVILLE.

who is to be relieved from duty in the near future. This cheer is a fitting demonstration of the fact that we have all come to appreciate Captain Somerville for the many fine things that he has done for us while here.

Coming to Camp P-69, in the latter part of September, Capt. Somerville immediately took up the work where Captain Tilden had left off, and proceeded to finish construction and establish conveniences and pleasures for the men which we very much needed. Among the many things that have been done during this time, we mention a few: He has given the camp a finished appearance by clearing the grounds, building fences and cattle guards, and planting a row of posts along the sides of the streets. He has provided hot water, and plenty of it, so that each man may take a hot bath every day and feel better as a result. He has given interesting lectures on law, which were well attended at all times (72 present at the last meeting). He has improved the infirmary so that sick men may be given better treatment. He established our Friday Night Smokers, which have proven a great pleasure. At all times since Captain Somerville arrived the Educational Program has shown constant improvement due to his enthusiastic direction. Aside from lecturing on Law once a week, he has completed the partition between the Recreation Hall and the Library, constructed a Petroleum Products shed, made a storeroom out of a fire hazard, provided rocking chairs for the Recreation Hall, assisted in the organization of our camp paper, CHIP-BONA, encouraged the production of shows in town and active cooperation with local organizations to such an extent that a much improved feeling exists between the townspeople and the C.C.C. boys. In fact the Educational activities have become a regular part of camp life since Capt. Somerville has been with us.

In view of these many beneficial developments in the short time he has been here, it is no wonder that Capt. Somerville's departure will be regretted by the entire company. He has been considerate at all times when dealing with men, firm when necessary for discipline, until it can be said that there is not a boy in the company that does not like him and who is not proud of him as a Commanding Officer. Due to his genial personality and tactful ways of handling his men, the morale of the company has always been at high ebb. He always has maintained the respect of the men with whom he has dealt. The loss of this fine Commanding Officer, who has proven himself a man and a gentleman, will be felt throughout the entire company and the community of Chipley and Bonifay. CHIP - BONA takes pleasure in this opportunity to express for the Enrollees, Forestry and Army Personnel, and the CHIP - BONA Staff the deepest appreciation for his services. We all join hands in wishing Captain Somerville the best of luck and success in his new undertakings.

Au Revoir - Captain SOMERVILLE!

CHARMING VISITORS.

Mr. Smith's crew, working on the other side of Chipley, had two beautiful visitors of the weaker sex out looking over their work on Wednesday morning. All the boys were in a very high state of excitement till they left. The young ladies told Mr. Smith that they were looking for a couple of handsome boys. They didn't have any trouble in finding them in that crew.

Their first real play will be a one act play, entitled, "Troubles of a Hotel Clerk" to be given in the very near future in the Recreation Hall. Everybody is always invited to attend our social functions.

LOST AND FOUND

FOUND, one key, No. 96. Owner may have same by getting in touch with Floyd Hobbs.

THE LOVE BIRD

J. R. Steward seems to be in a daze over this local telephone girl that he has been rushing around lately. Sunday night at the theatre, I don't believe he knew if a show was going on or not. I hope it hasn't affected him so we aren't able to bring him out of his misery.

A LOCAL FIRE

A bunch of the boys went to a fire Monday evening. It was simple to volunteers to go as all the boys seemed anxious to go to a fire since it is all new to them. The fire was caused by a pile of stumps being set on fire, then it got beyond their control and jumped into brush tops and grass. It was put out in good time by the boys before it could spread and turn into a serious fire.

SOCIETY

THE OWL'S EYE

- o -- o -- o -

Tuesday night several boys from camp including Al Mozley, Fred Muller, James R. Steward, and Dick Trogdon, CEA, attended a party dance in Bonifay at the home of Miss Annie Ruth Andrews.

- o -- o -- o -

Mr. Harry L. Goodrich, State ECW Engineer Inspector, was a visitor in camp last Tuesday.

- o -- o -- o -

Several business men from Bonifay, including Mr. McKinna and Mr. McPherson were visitors in camp last Tuesday. We are always glad to have our friends to come out to see us.

- o -- o -- o -

The C.C.C. Cavaliers staged their first performance last Saturday night at the Manavista Theatre in Chipley, which was a great success. The singers, Floyd Jones and "Blondie" May were very good. "Blondie" May, the Bugle Call Rag Tapper, gave an excellent performance of his popular dances. The negro team, "Cabbage" Durran and Willie Lewis, and those comedians "Slim" Packard and "Spaghetti" Bellere kept the audience in an uproar all during the show.

BASKET BALL

The basketball boys are practicing regularly and are practicing once a week in the Chipley Gym. and hope to play in the Bonifay Gym as soon as it is completed. The boys are working together fine as if they had played together for several years. We will soon start on a road to a successful future.

Well, another week of running CCC Boys and the dirt is getting thicker.

Now we'll light right in on Steward who is getting all gooey over a certain girl who has a voice that smiles over the phone. What phone? Any ole phone, but mostly the phone that Thompson uses to check the bills with.

- o --

It looks like Cecil P. is taking a run out powder next week. I wonder who'll be all forlorn about that or maybe he will have company on his way home. Take it easy Cecil!

- o --

Barkoskie: (talking in his sleep), "Oh, you Gretchen, come and get me". Now ain't that nice?

- o --

Culverhouse better learn how to bake cakes if he wants to hold that red head in California, or else.

- o --

Blondie May, one of our new boys, better lay low. That picture you carry in your suitcase looks pretty shrewd to me, but then Opal or Grace aren't hard to take.

- o --

Time- payday, Place- Jacksonville, Whom- Wingate, Why-girl friend, Color-brunette Eye's- blue, Dance- and how, Drink-show me the way to go home, Anything else- AAAAAHHH, somebody finish it, I stutter.

- o --

Lt. West declining invitations to a party in town. Maybe there is not enough sex appeal or else he is like the little boy who played with matches.

SCENES OF LIFE

by

Coy H. Pelham

- o -- O -- o -

Over the hills of lasting life,
Rises the sun of golden joy,
And all the subjects of earth,
That are under life's employ
Come forth in the gay morn
As if to start life all over;
And even though some seem worn,
There is yet joy for all.

We all know the pleasures of life,
We have experienced the sorrows of love,
Yet all that comes in life seems
To soar away as if on the wings of a dove.
Our hearts may burn with pain;
We will yet see joy again,
Even though it may be hurting to some,
To you it may seem like fun.

So when we find hills hard to climb,
And obstacles are placed in our way,
Don't fall out with the pleasures of life,
But let us all do our part and stay.
For the sake of pleasure for each other
Let us join the ranks of strife.
Even if we know we will fall,
There is yet joy for all.

FORESTRY CLUB MEETS

On the night of Oct. 17, 1934, a meeting of the Harrell Hill Forestry Club was held at the Forestry Headquarters, under the instruction of Mr. J. A. Smith. The Club had a general discussion on the pine tree and its uses. The types that are valuable and the difference between them. There were sixteen members present out of eighteen enrolled in the club, who had paid their dues, which will be spent on a party or something of that sort when the club begins their field work. The plans for the next meeting were discussed. Mr. Miller, Surveyor, was to give a lecture. On account of the slight illness of the instructor, the club was unable to meet on its regular date, but will be held later.

RESULTS OF HACK'S LOVE FOG BLUES

Culverhouse: Hack, are you still in that love fog?

Hack Wilson: Culverhouse, I don't think that's any of your business about me being in love.

C: It wouldn't be so bad if you would stop your griping and raising sand with the K. P's.

H: Well, it's better to raise sand with the K. P's. than all the time be grumbling with Shorty Mitchem and Dick about leaving stuff on the cooks table when it's noon of your business.

C: Hack, it seems that since you got that $6.00 raise, you think you own this kitchen. Some of these days about 2 o'clock in the morning when you go to griping about me wanting to sleep until the first bell rings, I'll show you who's who.

H: If you don't hush and let me alone, I'll hang one of these dippers over your head and it will take a blacksmith to get it off.

C: Hack, you've sat there on that table and griped now until those beans are burned and you didn't even put any salt in them either. I think I'll help you get a transfer to Uriah. That is all that you can talk about lately.

H: I wish that I could move to Uriah, I wouldn't have to look at your ugly mug all day and hear you gripe. It seems that you and Veteran are getting mighty thick. When you go to bed you have Vet. to tuck your blankets under your mattress for you.

C: Since Cecil P. has come back from Jax. you hang around him all the time, he must have brought a picture of some girls back with him that you like the looks of.

H: Well, Culverhouse, there is one thing to it, if I was as ugly as you are, I would look up to the good Lord and ask to be dismissed.

A Pal.

When I was young and in my prime,
I was happy as could be.
But now I'm old and my hands are cold,
I'm enrolled in the C.C.C.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR.

Dear EDITOR:

I have now been in camp two weeks and three days, and I find that I am beginning to really love it. I can say that it here better than at home and that is saying a lot.

As I could not attend college, I am taking advantage of Trigonometry and am going to take typing next month. I find that a boy has every chance of obtaining a higher goal if he will only take it.

I am under a good squad leader, Blackman, and I take this way in expressing my appreciation for the many privileges which one has here in camp.

Yours,

E. H. McKinney.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB MEETS

The second meeting of the Photography Club was held Wednesday night of Oct. 24, 1934, in the Library. The members of the club are making their own cameras, under the instruction of Mr. R. P. Trogdon, our Educational Adviser. They started their first work on them Wednesday night, which was very interesting to all members of the club-also the instructor. Besides making their own cameras, the club has planned to make and develop their own pictures. They have also planned to make their own dark room for developing the prints. The club now has ten members and sixteen men on the waiting list. The sixteen men on the waiting list will get to work on theirs as soon as their materials arrive.

NEW SURVEY CREW ORGANIZED

Monday morning of October 22, 1934, a new survey crew was organized in Company 1416, by the Foresters, as there was such a great number of men to go to the woods on that date, that one crew could not stay far enough ahead of the clearing crew. The new men, with the exception of one one, were placed together under Mr. Miller, with Aubrey Edwards as Instrument man. The other crew, six old men and one new one, were placed under Jack Griffin, who is Transit Man. The new members at chow time had a pretty good appetite and ate heartily. After they had finished eating, they were initiated and became full-fledged members of the Survey Crew, with five out-west without mercy. Each new member took it good-naturedly hoping they would get someone else sooner or later. Not only the new members like to see "fresh meat" come into the crew, but likewise do the old members.

- - - - -

Joe-Boy: I heard that you and Culverhouse had some words.

Anderson: I had some, but I didn't get a chance to use them.

- - - - -

C. P. : No passes will be granted this week-end.

Voice in rear: Give me liberty or give me death.

C. P. : Who said that?

Voice: Patrick Henry.

- - - - -

Visitor: Is this camp dry?

Local Enrollee: You said it. Why this camp is so dry that we have to pin our postage stamps to the letters.
Happy Days.

1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which are arranged in a columnar fashion. The names are written in a cursive script, and the addresses are written in a more formal, printed style. The list includes names such as "John Doe", "Jane Smith", and "Robert Brown", along with their respective addresses.

2. The second part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries. These notes are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a columnar fashion, similar to the first part. The notes appear to be a continuation of the information provided in the first part, or they may be separate entries related to the same topic.

3. The third part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries. These notes are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a columnar fashion, similar to the first part. The notes appear to be a continuation of the information provided in the first part, or they may be separate entries related to the same topic.

4. The fourth part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries. These notes are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a columnar fashion, similar to the first part. The notes appear to be a continuation of the information provided in the first part, or they may be separate entries related to the same topic.

5. The fifth part of the document is a series of short, handwritten notes or entries. These notes are written in a cursive script and are arranged in a columnar fashion, similar to the first part. The notes appear to be a continuation of the information provided in the first part, or they may be separate entries related to the same topic.

1. The first of these is the fact that the
